

OPEN CASTING CALL

POSITION: On-Camera Talent, ISA Weekly Rewind Host

DESCRIPTION: International Secret Agents (ISA) is seeking creative, outgoing, and self motivated candidates to apply to be the new host for ISA Weekly Rewind on ISAtv. ISA Weekly Rewind is a weekly pop culture web series, recapping the most interesting stories and current events from the past week. Those chosen will be exposed to an exciting and quick paced entertainment environment with an opportunity to become a trendsetter and voice for one of the fastest growing and most influential new media arts and events companies in North America. Talent will have access to some of the most well known artists in the ISA Community and will contribute to content development, working side by side with the ISA Team to help create the new generation of ISA.

BENEFITS: This is an unpaid position, but will offer a unique opportunity to get involved with an exciting and fast paced entertainment and events company. Position will offer world wide exposure and development through the ISAtv Network. This should act as a great platform for networking and provide valuable experience and future opportunities for those interested in new media, journalism, events, film, and music. Position will start with a 3 month probationary period with the chance to extend upon review with opportunities to grow with company including contracted pay for work when/and if available.

LOCATION: Those applying should currently live within the vicinity of Los Angeles County with reliable transportation to office in Downtown Los Angeles.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS: An ideal host would possess the following:

- Strong Interest in Pop Culture, Current Events, Online Culture, New Media, and Entertainment.
- Background in Comedy, Improv, and/or Theater
- Excellent Communication and Written Skills
- Funny, Interesting, and Unique Personalities
- Strong Voice and Presence
- Comfortable In Front of a Camera and in Front of Crowds
- Strong Ability to Meet Deadlines
- Strong Knowledge of Social Media
- Flexible Schedule

This position is open to all qualified, serious applicants 18 years of age and older. Open until filled and to start immediately.
